Itching to Travel? Shop These Beautiful Home Items From Around the Globe, Sourced by Style Director Robert Rufino

No suitcase needed!

There's nothing more exciting than finding a unique piece of art or decor while traveling—plus, (responsibly) incorporating treasures from the world is a great way to achieve a unique interior. While we're still pining for the days when we can travel freely, House Beautiful Style Director Robert Rufino has pulled together a list of beautifully crafted products from all over the world. Each textile, cup, and basket is hand-crafted, often using techniques native to its respective country. And, thanks to the internet, you can shop these treasures right from the comfort of your home. Follow along for a virtual grand tour, and get your carts ready—no passport required.

A striking pattern portrays the native eucalyptus foliage and landscape from Australia, where this tray was crafted. It will be an inviting and stylish item when offering goodies to your guests.

Tierra Upcycled Blanket - Nube

Nipomo

madetrade.com

$86.00

SHOP NOW

This blue and white colorway is inspired by Nube, the Spanish word for cloud. Handwoven in Mexico using upcycled yarn, this blanket will be perfect to cozy up to by a summer campfire. It also comes with a handmade leather strap, so you can bring it with you wherever you'd like!

Camellia Kutani Mug

Kokuzou Kiln

manekineko-ai.com

$100.00

SHOP NOW

Based at the foot of the Kokuzoyama mountain in Japan, Kokuzou Kiln uses the traditional Kutani technique—a unique glazing method—to create ceramic goods with a modern twist. This handpainted mug is quite poetic in the freehand nature of its design.

Terracotta Vessel with Studs

stashla.com

$3,500.00

SHOP NOW

These terracotta vessels are unique with their own history. This vase in particular comes from a hacienda, or a Spanish estate, in the region of Jalisco, Mexico.

Bolga Fan - LOVE

Baba Tree

goodeeworld.com

$55.00
